Donna Stephens has been named the new executive director of Morning Pointe of Brentwood.

Stephens will oversee daily operations at the senior living campus, which includes both assisted living and Alzheimer's memory care.

Founded in 1996 by healthcare entrepreneurs Greg A. Vital and J. Franklin Farrow, Morning Pointe of Brentwood is one of seven Morning Pointe Senior Living communities in the Middle Tennessee area.

"The relationships I've been able to forge over the years with residents, associates and families are the most valuable gift I could ever receive," Stephens said. "It is personally and professionally rewarding to contribute to the lives of so many wonderful seniors and their loved ones as we partner together on this journey of life."

Stephens, who has been in the senior living industry over 10 years, is no stranger to Morning Pointe. She was previously the executive director at Morning Pointe of Tullahoma for seven years and is a Certified Dementia Practitioner and Certified Senior Advisor.

Prior to her latest role, she served as executive director at Avenida of Cool Springs. Stephens is poised to lead Morning Pointe of Brentwood into a new era of excellence.

“I am pleased to welcome Donna into the Morning Pointe family of leaders,” said Heather Tussing, executive vice president of operations. “I have no doubt that her wealth of senior living knowledge and experience will help further the tradition of excellence at Morning Pointe of Brentwood.”

In her spare time, Stephens enjoys reading, writing, playing the piano and following her three sons’ high school sporting events.
