AHCA safety milestone showcases value and importance amid pandemic

Sarasota, Fla. – Aravilla Sarasota Assisted Living and Memory Care announced today that, for the fifth year in a row, the community has once again received a deficiency-free rating from the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA).

safety and optimal performance. Our team strives to provide the best possible resident care while maintaining a caring, vibrant, luxurious setting for our residents to call home,” said Carol Copenhaver, LPN, Certified Dementia Care Manager.

AHCA surveyors conducted unannounced rigorous inspections of Aravilla, reviewing clinical records, policies and procedures, staffing reports and other relevant documents. Surveyors also interviewed residents, family members, staff, visitors and/or volunteers to measure quality of resident life within the community.

Aravilla offers a modern concept in assisted living created for the way today’s seniors want to live—freely and independently, with personalized assistance and optional services delivered according to their needs and desires. At Aravilla, residents will discover new dimensions of health and happiness created by our resort-style environment and their own personal lifestyle preferences.

“Health and happiness are central to the Aravilla mission, and we elevate senior living to an unmatched level,” said Jen Riesenberger, Marketing Director at Aravilla Sarasota. “An AHCA deficiency-free rating provides valuable information to families and the public about our care. This information is invaluable in picking the right assisted living community. To achieve a deficiency-free rating for five years is an exceptional indicator of quality and reliability.”

Aravilla is expanding to Tampa Bay; Aravilla Clearwater is scheduled to open in December 2020.

Aravilla Sarasota is currently offering special pricing on select apartments while admitting residents using the safest of COVID-19 precautions.
