National Dementia Council Announces New Certified Practitioners Rick & Carol Williams

Rick and Carol Williams own Comfort Keepers and service these areas of Downriver Michigan

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRLog (Press Release) – Jan 14, 2011 – Comfort Keepers of Trenton recently celebrated their third year anniversary of business in Trenton of this year. Rick and Carol Williams continually attend seminars and trainings to exceed customer expectations in the assisted living industry.

In the past they have been awarded Certified Senior Advisor certification as well as Rookie of the Year for their Comfort Keeper Franchise. In December they worked to achieve their Certified Dementia Practitioner certification.

Comfort Keepers Michigan

This council was formed to promote standards of excellence in dementia education to professional and other caregivers who provide services to dementia clients. Because of the dramatic increase of Alzheimer's cases nationally and worldwide, it is the goal of the Council to develop and encourage comprehensive standards of excellence in direct-care skills, education and sensitivity in the areas of dementia care. More information for dementia care can be found at <http://www.nccdp.org>.

"We think it is imperative to stay on top of the industry standards in assisted living care. It is our intention to exceed those levels of care by practicing the latest well being techniques and hiring only quality caregivers." Said owner Rick Williams.

For more information on dementia services or other home care inquiries please call Rick Williams at 734-676-6643 or visit Comfort Keepers at <http://www.comfortkeepers.com/office-738>.
