

1. Business

People in Business: Greater Springfield Senior Services announces Anna Randall as the new Area Agency on Aging (AAA) Director

Posted Sep 02, 2020

Anna Randall

Facebook Share

Twitter Share

239

shares

By Pam Mastriano, The Republican

Springfield - Greater Springfield Senior Services Inc. (GSSSI) announced the promotion of Anna Randall as the new Area Agency on Aging (AAA) Director. Ms. Randall previously served as the agency's Information and Referral Supervisor prior to accepting this new role. The Area Agency on Aging Director's role is to conduct a comprehensive needs assessment every three years in order to develop an area plan to address the needs of adults sixty (60) years and older within the twelve cities and towns in GSSSI's catchment area. In addition, the AAA Director oversees the Nutrition program (i.e. Meals on Wheels), Title III grant oversight, Evidenced Based Trainings, and the Long Term Care Ombudsman programs.

Ms. Randall has been employed by Greater Springfield Senior Services for the past twelve (12) years. She is a founding member of the Springfield Dementia Friendly Coalition, and has been a Certified Dementia Practitioner since 2017. Anna received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications and International Studies from the University of North Carolina, Charlotte.

Greater Springfield Senior Services Inc., founded in 1972, is a private non-profit organization dedicated to maintaining a quality of life for older adults, caregivers, and persons with disabilities. This mission is achieved through the provision of programs and services which foster independence, dignity, safety and peace of mind.

Note to readers: if you purchase something through one of our affiliate links we may earn a commission.