American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA)

Founded in 1962, ACHCA is a non-profit membership organization which provides superior educational programming, certification in a variety of positions, and career development for its members, who are long-term care leaders.

ASA Career Advantage

American Society on Aging is an association of diverse individuals bound by a common goal: to support the commitment and enhance the knowledge and skills of those who seek to improve the quality of life of older adults and their families. The membership of ASA is a multidisciplinary array of professionals who are concerned with the physical, emotional, social, economic and spiritual aspects of aging. They range from practitioners, educators, administrators, policymakers, business people, researchers, students, and more.

California Assisted Living Association

The California Assisted Living Association (CALA) is the only association solely representing Assisted Living providers through the state. CALA represents over 400 Assisted Living communities. Our members range from small independently operated communities to large multi-national organizations, and from providers that cater to an active lifestyle to those that specialize in caring for residents with dementia.

LSN Career Center

LSN's Career Center is the premier career resource serving job seekers and employers in the senior living industry. This includes quality providers of nursing homes, assisted and supportive living, independent retirement housing, home and community –based services and continuing care retirement communities. Our members also include corporate offices of multi-facility organizations. Use the links below to guide you as you begin your search for senior living jobs or to post your employment opportunities.

National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners

The National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners®, LLC was formed in 2001 by a group of professionals with varying work and personal experiences in the field of dementia care. Their backgrounds include Nursing, Regional Managers, Geriatric Care Managers, Psychiatry, Dementia Unit Managers, Alzheimer's and related Dementia Care Specialist, Alzheimer's Educators, Dementia Educators, Activity Professionals, Therapeutic Recreation, Social Services, Therapist, Pharmacists, Alzheimer's Care Specialist, Long Term Care Administration, Elder Law, and Home Care Administration. The Council was formed to promote standards of excellence in dementia and Alzheimer's education to professionals and other caregivers who provide services to dementia clients. As the number of dementia cases continues to increase nationally and worldwide, there is a great necessity to insure that care givers are well trained to provide appropriate, competent, and sensitive direct care and support for the dementia patient. The goal of the Council is to develop and encourage comprehensive standards of excellence in the health care profession and delivery of dementia care. NCCDP is committed to providing quality Alzheimer's Training and Dementia Training program.
