FAQ's

Q: Does the State of Michigan require licensing for home health care providers?

A: Make sure you ask questions to home health care providers on whether they do background checks and drug screenings. Also, be sure to ask if the home health care provider is bonded and insured.

Q: How much instruction do dementia care providers get?

A: The training caregivers receive consists of a 20min instructional video. Complete Compassionate Care dementia caregivers receive 4 to 16 hours of intensive training from a certified dementia practitioner and instructor.
