

(316) 685-3322

INFO REQUEST

MENU

Dementia Training

Take the Path to Certification: Alzheimer's Disease & Dementia Care Seminar

This is a required seminar for those pursuing CDP Certification and who qualify through the NCCDP (National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners). Presenter, Angela Lee, RN, CDP, CDCM, CADDCT is a NCCDP certified Alzheimer's and Dementia Instructor.

For more information:

For schedule and fees of course, contact Angie Lee or Robert Miller at ComfortCare Homes, 316-685-3322, during regular business hours, Monday thru Friday, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. Or email them at angiel@comfortcarehomes.com / robertm@comfortcarehomes.com.

Course Provides:

An 8-hour seminar approved by the NCCDP to promote the skills and knowledge of those who deliver care to people who have Alzheimer's and Dementia.

ComfortCare Homes has also applied for nursing CE credit through Wesley Medical Center - Staff Development Department to offer 8-hours of participant credit for continuing education credit. Allied Health Care Professionals (i.e., social workers, therapists, etc.) will receive a certificate of attendance to apply for continuing education hours

Course Objectives:

- ◆ To provide education on the breakdown of Alzheimer's and Dementia.
- ◆ To provide thorough information regarding the physical care for people with Alzheimer's and Dementia
- ◆ To provide information on how to communicate and deal with persons and families of people with Alzheimer's and Dementia.

Certification:

This is the required course for those seeking certification as a Certified Dementia Practitioner (CDP) by the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners.

Learn more about the certification process at the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners at www.nccdp.org.

Meet the Presenter:

Angela Lee, RN, CDP, CDCM, CADDCT

Angela has been active in the medical field since 1986.

Prior to joining ComfortCare Homes she had a long career in the hospice arena where she earned certification as a Certified Hospice and Palliative Nurse and Approved Trainer through the HPNA. At that time her expertise focused on assisting hospice agencies in Alaska, Colorado and Kansas. As the Director of Resident Care for ComfortCare Homes, Angie is devoted to Alzheimer's and Dementia Care of Residents who live in the company's various residential home settings. Angie received her training and certification as a Dementia Trainer and Practitioner in April 2012. Her nursing and leadership skills are recognized in the International Nursing Association's 2012 publication.

More Info

Licensing Information

Careers

Media Archive

Blog

Testimonials

Gallery

Dementia Training

Testimonials

"Yes, and I do recommend. I am so grateful to have these pleasant, happy, clean homes, where staff cares about Roberta and about me. The staff allows me to laugh, cry, rage and love this crazy disease."

- Sherry Cusick

Read more...

News

Apr
16

Open house planned at center that will care for people with dementia

Read more on Eagle Link. By Kelsey Ryan. The Wichita Eagle ComfortCare Homes is hosting an open house for its latest advanced... read more

Apr
15

Comfort Care Home's $2.6M advanced dementia-care facility to open

Wichita Business Journal By Josh Heck Comfort Care Homes will open its new care center for people with advanced stages of Alz... read more

Dec
20

Wichita nursing homes face challenges finding qualified applicants

Wichita Business Journal By Josh Heck Hiring for long-term care facilities can be challenging. It requires finding people who... read more

More News>>

Gallery

View All Galleries>>

Comfort Care Homes

7701 E. Kellogg, Suite 490 | Wichita, KS 67207 | (316) 685-3322

©2014 Comfort Care Homes | All Rights Reserved

Home CareGivers Partners FAQ Contact

Site by 360ideas | See Us On 360Wichita