National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners Celebrates Alzheimer's and Dementia Staff Education Week

By: Anne Llewellyn, RN-BC, MS, BHSA, CCM, CRRN

NCCDP Alzheimer's and Dementia Education Week is February 14th to the 21st. To celebrate the organization has developed an Education Tool Kit which contains Free Power Point Programs that can be used to provide in-service education for staff members. Education Week was developed and implemented by NCCDP to bring awareness to the importance of staff educators being trained and certified in dementia care. To access the Tool Kit and learn about the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners. Read more.
