

- Home
- Our Pastor
- The Vision
- Leadership
- Our Church
- Announcements
- Bible Studies

Forgetting the Past, Dealing with the Present and Leaping into your Divine Our Pastor

Pastor's Bio

Pastor Janice Johnson is an innovator leader, and the Pastor of DivineDestiny Christian Fellowship. For over 11 years this dynamic, gifted lady has been equipping people to fulfill their destinies and maximizing their potential. Highly respected by persons from all walks of life, a teacher, preacher, mentor, activity director and mother she reaches into the depths of her existence, draws on knowledge experience and wisdom, and pours out unselfishly in the lives of others. As a speaker she has travel to various places in the United States to speak in conferences, retreats and special programs. Leadership has requested her presence to be in their services because of the anointing on her life. She has received certificates of completion in several courses: the New and Old Testament Survey 1990, Immanuel Assembly of God Urban Bible Training College, The Millennial 1995, Learning to Hear from God 1995, Identity of False Prophet 1996, Prophet I & II 1996 from Rachel Neal Evangelistic School of Ministries. At this present time she is taking a correspondent course through Ames Bible College on Bible Studies. She also hold certification for an Activity Director as well as a Certified Dementia Practitioner. She also has received certification as an Aerobic Instructor. Pastor Janice Johnson and her two lovely children Curtis and Victoria reside in Lorain, OH.