When we asked our Case Manager, Krista Thobe, why she chose Celina Manor, she replied "The level of care our patients receive is like no other. That is why I am so pleased my Grandparents are here, because I know they are receiving the best care possible."

We want to welcome Jill Rutschilling to our team! Jill recently accepted the position as Business Office Manager & will handle all resident accounts and insurance billing among many other functions and activities.

When we asked Julie Hone why she chose to work for Celina Manor she replied "Why Not!" This says it all! Julie is an LPN that handles all wound care at our Care Community and, after 21 years of service, her dedication speaks volumes on why she works with us.

When we asked Physical Therapist Assistant Amber Slusher why she chose Celina Manor she quickly responded: "Because of the tremendous facility, outstanding staff and the positive outcomes our patients attain. It's a wonderful thing when passion and career come together."
