

Login

NOW HIRING IN ARKANSAS
 featured job video clips on jobsarkansas.com

NW BUSINESS PEOPLE

Sunday, February 28, 2016

Cecelia Collier started Heal and Renew Counseling, a new practice in Lowell. She is a licensed associate counselor and joins other practitioners at 322D Bloomington St. Faith-based counseling is available upon request. She received her bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Arkansas in 1992 and master's degree in marriage and family therapy, with an emphasis in community counseling and lay therapy, from John Brown University in 2014.

Tom Hauge was promoted to vice president of business development at Kendal King Group in Bentonville. He joined the company in 2013 and has category management and retail experience with brands including Energizer, Philips, Eastman Outdoors, Bush Brothers and Nielsen. Hauge serves on the Open Avenues Foundation Board and the Mercy Hospital Foundation Board and Corporate Council. He was recently named Northwest Arkansas Volunteer of the Year by Mercy NWA.

Jenny Simmons joined Hull Dermatology as a physician assistant. She graduated from Harding University with a master's of physician assistant studies in 2008, finishing her program with a special interest in the field of dermatology. She worked in a Little Rock practice for seven years. Simmons is a member of the Society of Dermatology Physician Assistants and the Arkansas Academy of Physician Assistants.

Mike Gibbons will be senior vice president of lending for a new First National Bank Ozark location opening in May. He has a bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas. Gibbons is a member of the Ozark Public Schools Board of Directors, administration board chairman of First United Methodist Church, Ozark Chamber of Commerce, Ozark Rotary Club and a graduate of Leadership Franklin County.

Patti Rofkahr will be loan assistant for a new First National Bank Ozark location opening in May. She was twice selected for a Quality Customer Service Award at her previous banking employer and volunteers extensively throughout the community.

John C. Eichler of Eichler-Williams Insurance qualified for the 2016 Million Dollar Round Table. The association for financial professions acknowledges top producing agents around the world. Fewer than 1 percent of all agents qualify for this award. Eichler has qualified for this award 43 consecutive years.

Linda Vigil was named director of administration and marketing for the Frank and Barbara Broyles Legacy Foundation. She spent the majority of her 30-year professional career working with older adults in the senior housing and health care industry. She holds a business degree with marketing concentration and a master's degree in gerontology. Vigil is a certified assisted living administrator and a certified dementia practitioner.

Email: cswanson@nwadg.com or send your item to: Christie Swanson, P.O. Box 7, Springdale, AR. 72765. Information must be received by noon Wednesday prior to the Sunday the item is to be published.

CNA Certification Online

allnursingschools.com/CNA

Find All Currently Enrolling CNA Certification Programs Here. »

Become a Counselor

Fuel Savings Guide

Graphic Design - Online

Tweet

Log in to comment

Click here to login

NEWS

SPORTS

OPINION

FEATURES

OBITUARIES

PHOTOS

VIDEOS

OTHER RESOURCES

HELP

MY ACCOUNT

