

- HOME
- NEWS
- OPINION
- GOVERNMENT
- LAW
- ENERGY
- SHOP
- ABOUT US

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT

National council of Certified Dementia Practitioners

Posted: May 30, 2014 2:56 PM EDT

Updated: Jun 29, 2014 2:56 PM EDT

CHARLESTON, WV - Jane Marks of Charleston recently completed training in Greenville, S.C., and was awarded certification as a certified dementia practitioner by the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners.

Marks

Marks previously served as executive director of the Alzheimer's Association West Virginia Chapter for 12 years before retiring last June.

She continues to work in the field of dementia care and caregiver support. She manages a website for caregivers, sandwichcaring.com, as well as providing professional training and performing public speaking on a variety of topics, concerning dementia and caregiver challenges.

In July, she will present an academic poster at the Alzheimer's Association International Conference in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Warner Law Offices

Updated:

Boyd L. Warner, an attorney with more than 50 years of experience, recently joined his son Bobby Warner at Warner Law Offices.

Dinsmore & Shohl

Updated:

Twenty-nine attorneys with Dinsmore & Shohl have been named to the West Virginia Super Lawyers list and the Rising Stars list for 2016. Attorneys on the Super Lawyers list are selected by a multi-phase process that takes into account independent research, peer evaluations and professional achievement. The Rising Stars list recognizes up-and-coming attorneys in the state of West Virginia.

Shepherd University

Updated:

Shepherd University's Holly Morgan Frye is taking on a new outreach assignment. Frye will remain assistant vice president for student affairs but also become the school's director of community and congressional relations, university president Mary J.C. Hendrix said.

West Virginia University

Updated:

West Virginia University's Gary Winn, professor of safety management in the Department of Industrial and Management Systems and Engineering, has written a book for early career professionals interested in becoming leaders in occupational health and safety or engineering.

Spilman Thomas & Battle

Updated:

Attorney John B. Hardison has joined Spilman Thomas & Battle. His primary area of practice is labor and employment law with an emphasis on traditional labor law issues facing employers.

The State Journal
PO Box 11848
Charleston, WV 25339

350 Quarrier Street
Charleston, WV 25301

Can't Find Something?

 All content © Copyright 2000 - 2016 Frankly Media and The State Journal. All Rights Reserved. For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service.