New Administrator Named at Ingersoll Place

January 02, 2014

Jacqueline Weckesser, LMSW, has been named administrator of Ingersoll Place Assisted Living in Niskayuna. She will be responsible for maintaining regulatory compliance with the NYS Department of Health and ensuring optimal services and support for Ingersoll's residents.

Weckesser received her undergraduate degree in social work from Marist College and a master of social work degree from Fordham University. She also studied nursing at Dutchess Community College and is a licensed practical nurse.

She is a member of the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners (CDP) and is a trained field instructor in the education and training of social work students.

Weckesser most recently served as administrator of The Inn at the Fountains, an assisted living community in Millbrook, NY.

Ingersoll Place is a not-for profit assisted living and memory care community in Niskayuna. It has been in continuous operation since 1924 with a longstanding tradition of personalized service and supportive care for older adults.
