HACKETTSTOWN — Darlene Tranquilli, Founder and Executive Director of Selah Care Center non-profit organization, will host an "Open House" on Saturday, April 28 at their new location at 443 Schooleys Mountain Road in Hackettstown, (across from Heath Village). Selah welcomes all members, caregivers, and the community to participate in a day of fun and caring from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The celebration will include a delicious barbeque and home-made refreshments and some area businesses will be participating, including the local Good Humor® ice cream truck!

The management and staff of Selah provide compassionate care for those with Alzheimer's and related illnesses in a safe and motivating environment. Darlene Tranquilli, who is a Certified Dementia Practitioner, and her staff are excited about this new opportunity to serve the Hackettstown and surrounding area communities with quality, individualized and compassionate adult care:

"We are extremely thankful to have earned the trust of our families. When you have met one individual with Alzheimer's, you have met one individual with Alzheimer's. Each Member is cared for and treated as individuals. We meet them exactly where they are within their own reality. There isn't a day that goes by that we have not learned something new about who they are and we walk away with a deeper appreciation of the person that still remains within."

The Selah Care Center provides social stimulation for adults who need interaction during the day. The well-qualified staff has been carefully selected for their sensitivity to the unique needs of Selah members. Programs and activities for adults are customized and include crafts, games, dancing, gardening, themed events, health and fitness, pet therapy, music therapy, hair and nail grooming, and IGM® acupressure treatments by appointment.

The flat fee of $58 per day is all-inclusive of the activities, light breakfast, dinner and snacks, med-reminders and more, including custom care as needed. Transportation is provided at a nominal additional cost.

All are invited to visit the new location and tour the comfortable, home-like facility at their Open House or anytime. Selah welcomes volunteers and seeks donations to help them grow and continue to provide "the relief caregivers need with the respect their loved ones deserve." Darlene Tranquilli can be reached for comment at 908-850-0099 or by email:
