

The 2012 National Association Directors of Nursing Administration in Long-Term Care (NADONA/LTC)
National Conference in Nashville, Tennessee
July 21-25, 2012

NADONA/LTC is pleased to announce the 2012 National Conference that will be taking place at the Gaylord Opryland in Nashville, Tennessee! Information on this meeting can be found here, with the PDF prospectus available for downloading and printing available here.

This year's Conference will be the best ever! There are many reasons for you to attend the 2012 National Conference including:

- Networking opportunities within your state and across the U.S.
- Up to 30 hours of nursing continuing education credit*
- Putting the "fun" back into the fundamental principles of learning
- Interact with exhibiting companies whose products and services have a positive impact on residents, families, and staff
- Special 1-day attendee rates are being offered to those living and working in Tennessee and surrounding states!

During these challenging times, there couldn't be a better reason to get updated on the newest clinical and management techniques. The sessions offered at this year's National Conference will include the newest and most timely information on methods to improve care and efficiencies within your practice and facilities including sessions on:

- National Coalition Certified Dementia Practitioners (NCCDP) Certification Course
- American Association Nurse Assessment Coordinators (AANAC) Review Course
- Quality Assessment and Performance Improvement (QAPI) Program
- "Boot Camp" for seasoned and new directors of nursing
- Strategies to preventing and managing medication errors
- Overview of important legal and regulatory challenges in long-term care
- Strategies to improve resident care in assisted living

Just as important as education, the National Conference provides you with time to network and build relationships with your colleagues and to learn from other facilities located in other parts of the country.

Remember to budget some time to enjoy the many activities taking place in Nashville! For more information on registering for the meeting and to reserve your hotel room please click here!

This program has also been submitted to The National Continuing Education Review Service (NCERS) of the National Association of Long Term Care Administrator Boards (NAB) for continuing education credit.

Continuing education credits from this conference are recognized by National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners (NCCDP).
