In- Home Care Agency Involved in Union Campaign Financing Violations in Michigan

Mar 11, 2014 10:12 pm

The Michigan Secretary of State Ruth Johnson's office handed down a fine to the Service Employees International Union (SEIU) recently in the amount of $199,000 for alleged campaign financing fraud from the 2012 elections. The case involves an attempt by the organization Citizens for Affordable Quality Home Care to alter the state constitution, which would amend how in home care workers are viewed within the context of labor laws.
