Willowbrook employees earn CDP distinction

Oct 2, 2018

Willowbrook Memory Support Residences of Effingham announces the achievement of Certified Dementia Practitioner Certification, or CDP, by long-time employees Kaylie Corman, Brenda James, Delia Luthy and Jenny Reiss.

The CDP certification is awarded by the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners and is given to individuals in the health care field who obtain this certification through specialized dementia training. It is valid for two years. CDP certificate holders must work to obtain CEU (Continuing Education Units) to keep their certification.
