

Answers.com[®]

Alzheimer's and Dementia Staff Education Week

Chase's 2010 Calendar:

Alzheimer's and Dementia Staff Education Week

Feb 14–21. To bring awareness to the importance of staff educators being trained and certified in dementia care, to provide education by means of a face-to-face interactive classroom environment and to provide comprehensive dementia education to all health care professionals and line staff. Annually, the second week in February. For info: National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners (NCCDP), 103 Valley View Trail, Sparta, NJ 07871. Phone: (877) 729-5191. Fax: (973) 729-1560. E-mail: nationalccdp@aol.com. Web: www.nccdp.org.

See more events for Feb 14, 2010.

Answers.com[®] |  ReferenceAnswers[™]
The world's leading Q&A site

Related Videos:

Alzheimer's and Dementia Staff Education Week

Related answers:

-  People who have dementia? Read answer...
-  Can you keep an elderly person in the house and not let them go out with alzheimers or dementia? Read answer...
-  What is Alzheimer's? Read answer...

Help us answer these:

-  What is alzheimer's disease and how does it differ from dementia?
-  How can Carbamazapene help alzheimer's dementia?
-  Signs of alzheimers vs dementia?

Post a question - any question - to the WikiAnswers community:

Go

