

From JournalStar.com

Casey Sova joined Home Instead Senior Care on May 16th as the relationship enrichment coordinator. With six years of experience as a hospice volunteer coordinator, two years of experience in life enrichment coordination, certified dementia practitioner, certified activity director and a wealth of personal life experiences, she is a perfect fit for this position.

As the relationship enrichment coordinator, Sova trains, mentors and supports the CAREGivers, is the dementia CARE specialist and manages the Education and Life Enrichment Center-coordinating training and activities for both the CAREGivers and the community.

Home Instead Senior Care's mission is to enhance the lives of aging adults and their families and Sova is an integral part in serving that mission. For more information about how Home Instead Senior Care can serve you or your loved one or to learn more about the Education and Life Enrichment Center, go to www.homeinstead.com/101 or call 402-423-8119.