Dementia Services Group Assists Families, Healthcare Professionals and Providers

Indianapolis - Dementia Services Group (DSG), formerly Alzheimer's Advocacy Group, recently expanded its services as well as rebranded with a new name, logo and website, www.dementiaservicesgroup.com. Founded by Rev. Jamie Wilson, DSG's mission is to improve the lives of those living with dementias – including Alzheimer's disease and traumatic brain injury – by offering support, advocacy and advice to individuals and families and by providing education to healthcare professionals and senior providers. Wilson is certified by the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners as a Certified Dementia Practitioner and as an instructor. In addition, she is a Certified Senior Advisor and an ordained, non - denominational minister. Wilson holds a Bachelor of Arts and an MBA from Dominican University in River Forest, Ill. and spent her "former life" as an operations executive working with fortune 500 companies. Perhaps most importantly, Jamie has walked the path of those to whom she provides consultation as the daughter of an Alzheimer's patient. Among Dementia Services Group's list of offerings: Geriatric/Dementia Care Management, assessments for families and insurance review as well as seminars, training and chaplain services for assisted living facilities. For more information, visit http://dementiaservicesgroup.com/services/full_services.html or contact Wilson at jwilson@dementiaservicesgroup.com or 317.225.3033.
