PUSHING THE ENVELOPE:

ADVOCACY CENTER NEWS IN BRIEF

AC AT WORK

The Uncertainties of Continuing Tutorship

Many parents of children with intellectual disabilities choose continuing tutorship to maintain guardianship and legal authority over their child after he/she reaches the age of 18. Unlike in a full interdiction, the subject of the continuing tutorship retains some rights. Recently, however, due to a revamping of the continuing tutorship laws in Louisiana, those rights are not clearly defined. Click here to read more.

AC IN THE COMMUNITY

Alzheimers and Dementia Staff Education Week

February 14th to 21st is Alzheimers and Dementia Staff Education week. To celebrate, the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners is offering a tool kit to bring national and international awareness to the importance of providing comprehensive dementia education.
