National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners Stress the Need for Alzheimer's and Dementia Training for All Healthcare Workers and Law Enforcement!

Feb 22, 2005 | 392 words, 0 images

SPARTA, N.J., Feb. 22 -- As the number of dementia cases continues to increase nationwide and worldwide, there is a great necessity to insure that caregivers are well trained to provide appropriate, competent and sensitive direct care and support for the dementia patient. The National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners is stressing the need for Alzheimer's and Dementia training for all health care professionals. It is imperative that long-term care facilities provide competent trainers in the area of Dementia.

The National Council is holding a nationally recognized Alzheimer's and Dementia Train the Trainer Seminar on May 14th, 2005. The seminar is recommended for Corporate Trainers, In-Service Directors, Geriatric Care Managers, Nurses, Administrators, Activity Professionals, Social Workers and Consultants. The Alzheimer's and Dementia Trainer Seminar will provide the student with all the tools to implement a comprehensive training program, Power Point, Overheads, 5 Text Books, Video and Handouts. The course will include Overview (Diagnosis, Prognosis, Treatment) Communication, Feelings and Repetitive Behaviors, Wandering, Hoarding, Paranoia, Hallucinations, Sun downing, Intimacy, Sexuality, Aggressive Behaviors, Catastrophic Reactions, Personal Care (Swallowing, Eating, Bathing & Dressing), Activities, Environment, Staff and family relationships, Stress and the Caregiver, Multicultural Considerations, Pastoral Care and End of ... /50% unread/
