Certified Dementia Practitioner

Story Post A Comment 0 comment\(s\)

Posted: Sunday, February 03, 2008

Kim Baier has earned the credential of Certified Dementia Practitioner from the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners in West Des Moines.

The eight-hour certification process included education in key aspects of dementia care, including communication techniques, disruptive behaviors interventions and tools for addressing concerns such as wandering, aggressive behaviors, poor nutrition and sexuality.

Baier has been with Sunrise since 2000, spending the majority of her time in memory care. She began her career as an LPN and currently is the RN neighborhood manager for both the Sunlight and Bernstein Memory Care Centers. As manager, she is the MDA coordinator, and is responsible for the direct oversight of 34 residents and the staff of both centers.
