Memory Care Community to Host Webinar to Ease Holiday Stress for Families Struggling with Dementia

For some, the joyful holidays bring unwelcome guests – stress and depression. But for families and loved ones struggling with dementia, the yuletide season can be even more difficult. A Glenview memory care community will host a zoom webinar on Tips for Compassionate Communication During the Holidays.

Emerald Place, an Anthem Memory Care community will host the free zoom webinar from noon to 1 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 16. Amy Cohen, OT and certified dementia practitioner and care manager with ACE Senior Care Navigators, will discuss positive communication tips and strategies designed to help families have more meaningful interactions with loved ones with dementia.

For more information and to RSVP for the zoom link, please contact Allison Rackow at arackow@anthememorycare.com.
